From the desk of: Philip Micele

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Mary's,

At Fr. Dominic's invitation, I'd like to share a little bit about myself with all of you. As many of you know, I am a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Newark, originally from Westfield, New Jersey, and will begin my first year of theology (and second year overall) this fall at Immaculate Conception Seminary. I hope, if it is God's will, to be ordained a priest in four years.

Prior to entering the Seminary, I attended Westfield High School, and studied philosophy and theology at Boston College. As a younger person, I was not very religious and was never active much in my home parish, but I was blessed to have a number of friends and family members who were very devout Christians, and whose example always impressed and edified me. Around the time I was fifteen years old, I began to feel the Holy Spirit working more intensely in my life, especially through their words and example, drawing me to "Come and see" (Jn 1:39) and experience for myself the faith that gave them such joy and peace in their lives. Little by little, I began to fall in love with Christ and his Church, and eventually started to feel that the Lord might be calling me to serve him as a priest, and devote my life to bringing this joy to other people. During college, I was blessed to get to know many good, holy priests, and with their guidance and encouragement, decided to apply to the Seminary. I greatly enjoyed my first year there, and am excited to return in the fall.

St. Paul tells us in today's second reading, "You were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Gal 5:13-14). I find his insight to be quite beautiful, and especially relevant to anyone who, like me, might be discerning a vocation to the priesthood. Wherever the Lord is calling us, he has called us first and foremost, as his beloved sons and daughters, to share in his freedom, a freedom which is not self-seeking, but reveals itself in the self-giving love of Jesus Christ. Only in surrendering our lives to God and living in service to our neighbor do we find true freedom, happiness, and peace. As we heard our Lord say in last week's Gospel, "whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it" (Lk 9:24). Our greatest fulfillment is in doing his will, and echoing the words of Mary, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word" (Lk 1:38).

Being here at St. Mary's and doing what little I can to serve you all has certainly done a lot to bring this truth home to me. It's been such a privilege to be part of parish life, and to get to know you all (though I ask your continued patience; I'm terrible with names!), and I've found assisting with the liturgy and bringing communion to sick and homebound parishioners to be especially joyful parts of my experience here. Know that you're all in my prayers, and I ask that you please pray for me, that I may always know, love, and embrace God's will.

In Jesus and Mary, Philip Micele

Dumont Ambulance Corps 75th Anniversary Exhibit

To mark its  $75^{\text{th}}$  Anniversary the Dumont Volunteer Ambulance Corps is sharing its history through an exhibit of 40 photographs and memorabilia. The free Exhibit is in the Dumont Library lower level Exhibit Space and will run until June  $30^{\text{th}}$ .

There is a significant connection between St Mary's and the DVAC as many members were also parishioners. Six St. Mary's priests served as Corps Chaplain over the decades. From 1942 through 1955 Father Henry O'Neill served on the Corps Board of Governors. In the 1970's Father Richard Ehrenberg was an actual Active member of the Corps. In many other ways St Mary's Parish has supported the 'Good Samaritan' work of the Ambulance Corps for 75 years. The current DVAC members invite the St Mary's community to enjoy this look back at the history and accomplishments of your friends and neighbors who volunteered to help our town.

A Thought from Ven. Miriam Teresa:

MEDITATION is the angel of God who prepares His way before Him in each individual soul, to the end that He will turn and bring us to life. It is the orderly and carefully planned preparation one makes for receiving an expected guest.

Prayer for Canonization

Most Holy and Blessed Trinity, Whom Sister Miriam loved so ardently, grant that we, like her, may become ever more conscious of Your Divine Presence within our souls. We implore You to show signs that Your humble servant enjoys glory with You in Heaven, and to hasten the day when we may render her a public tribute of our veneration and love.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Archbishop's Annual Appeal

Thank you to our many parishioners who have already made their pledge to the 2013 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. As of June 5th, 211 families pledged for a total of $41,476.00. With your help, we can reach and hopefully surpass our goal of $52,917.00.

If you have not done so, please remember to return your completed pledge envelope for the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. You may place the envelope in the collection basket or bring it to the office.

~*~*~*~*~*~*~*~*~*~* Making a Difference...

Last month, in the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark, Archbishop Myers ordained eight men to the Priesthood and eleven men as transitional Deacons for service to the Church of Newark. Transitional deacons serve in parishes for one year before they are ordained to the priesthood.

While many dioceses in the United States have no candidates for the priesthood and clergy shortages are widespread, the Archdiocese of Newark is blessed with several men each year who are willing to answer God's call to serve, insuring that the Church will be present for future generations. The seminary training and formation of our new priests is funded primarily by the Archbishop's Annual Appeal.

Thank you for your support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal which makes educating our future priests a reality!

Stewardship Prayer

Dear Lord.

O Divine Giver of all gifts, grant us the daily graces we need to follow closely in the footsteps of Jesus in the way we live out our lives and make use of our gifts.

Daily, may we renew with You our small part of the world by allowing Your will to be accomplished in and through us.

Help us to trust in Your love for us and to grow in our fidelity and relationship with You.

We thank You for the trust You place in us as stewards of our personal gifts. May the Holy Spirit guide us in placing our time, talent and treasure at the service of each other so that together we may faithfully witness the Christian message and thus become your holy people.

Amen.
