Eucharistic Liturgy

Saturday Eve: 5:30 pm Sunday: 8:00 am, 10:00 am, 12:00 pm Holydays (except Saturday): 7:00 am, 8:45 am, & 7:30 pm Weekdays: Monday - Friday 8:00 am Saturday: 8:30 am Holiday: 9:00 am on Major Civil Holidays

Religious Devotions

Miraculous Medal Novena: Saturday following 8:30 am Mass.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament First Friday of the month, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm, in the lower church. From September thru May.

Sacrament of Penance

Saturday: 4:00 - 4:45 pm Private confessions at any time. Please call rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage

Common policy of the Archdiocese of Newark asks that arrangements be made one year in advance. Engaged couples must call to make an appointment to speak to a priest.

Sacrament of Baptism

Parents should register for the Baptism Preparation Program at the rectory...even before the baby is born!

Catechumenate

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which adults (and children who have reached the age of reason) are prepared to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. If you, or someone you know, would like to inquire about becoming a Catholic, please call the parish office.

Ministry to the Sick and Homebound The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is available to be celebrated with anyone in need. Please do not wait until death is imminent to contact the parish regarding an ill family member. Eucharistic Ministers and others serve our community by visiting and bringing Communion to the sick and homebound. Please call the parish office if you wish such a visit.

God's Plan for Giving - Tithing Tithing is God's plan to support His Church. Full tithing means 10% of gross income to God. We ask half of this, or 5%, for your parish Church. The other 5% goes to your favorite charities.

"The Passion through Mary's Eyes"

Join us on Tuesday, March 24 at 7:30 pm in the Spiritual Formation Center for a reflection by Dr. Dianne Traflet of Immaculate Conception Seminary. More information to follow.

On this the Fourth Sunday of Lent, we are more than half way through the Lenten Season. We will soon shift our focus to the days leading up to Jesus final entrance into Jerusalem and His suffering, death, and resurrection. This is a good check point for us to see how we are doing during this Lenten season. Let us continue to draw closer to the Lord during this holy season.

Two weekends ago we had our Confirmation Retreat and we hosted the annual Pre-Cana program for those preparing for marriage. I just want to personally thank Bill Mascitello and his team for their hard work of conducting our Confirmation retreat. I also want to thank the Pre-Cana team who prepared meals, provided hospitality and gave the talks at Pre-Cana. In a special way, I want to thank Deacon John and Kathy Sylvester for coordinating and hosting the event.

During this Fourth Week of Lent, may these words from St. Bernard of Clairvaux inspire us:

Let us return to ourselves, let us examine our paths; and in order to accomplish this in truth, let us invoke the Spirit of truth, let us call to him from the deep into which he has led us, because he leads us on the way by which we discover ourselves, and without him we can do nothing. Nor should we be afraid that he will disdain to come down to us, for the contrary is true: he is displeased if we attempt even the least thing without him. For he is not one who passes and does not return, he leads us on from brightness to brightness because he is the Spirit of the Lord (2 Cor 3:18). Sometimes he fills us with rapture by communication of his light. sometimes he adapts himself to our weakness and sends beams of light into the dark about us (Ps 17:29). But whether we are raised above ourselves or left with ourselves, let us stay always in the light, always walk as children of the light (Eph 5:8).

Have a great week!

May God be Praised, Fr. Dominic

A Thought from Blessed Miriam Teresa:

The end of our existence is to make our ways His very own...and since, as the apostle tells us, without His special grace we could neither have a single good thought, nor pronounce His sacred name, it is very evident that it is not we who pray, but God Who prays within us.

(G.P.,	p.	124)

Prayer for Canonization

Most Holy and Blessed Trinity, Whom Sister Miriam loved so ardently, grant that we, like her, may become ever more conscious of Your Divine Presence within our souls. We implore You to show signs that Your humble servant enjoys glory with You in Heaven, and to hasten the day when we may render her a public tribute of our veneration and love.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hackensack Walk-in Shelter

A word of thanks is extended to all those who coordinated, prepared, and serve the food on Feb. 25 so that we could serve the hungry in Hackensack. Whatever you made allowed those who would otherwise go hungry to have a homecooked meal. In doing this, those who prepared a dish fulfilled the Lord's word – When I was hungry, you gave me to eat. The Lord will surely bless all those who reached out to others in their need.

Here are some of the good deeds that the children of St. Maru's did as a way of showing their love of God and of our parish. We hope that they will always know how important what they do for God and for us truly is. Even though they are still young, they can give us a wonderful example to follow.

"I took the trash." "I played with cousin." "I won a prize for my sister."

Stewardship Prayer

Dear Lord,

O Divine Giver of all gifts, grant us the daily graces we need to follow closely in the footsteps of Jesus in the way we live out our lives and make use of our gifts.

Daily, may we renew with You our small part of the world by allowing Your will to be accomplished in and through us.

Help us to trust in Your love for us and to grow in our fidelity and relationship with You.

We thank You for the trust You place in us as stewards of our personal gifts. May the Holy Spirit guide us in placing our time, talent and treasure at the service of each other so that together we may faithfully witness the Christian message and thus become your holy people. Amen.

Bringing Others to Belief

The official in today's Gospel places his faith in Jesus even before he meets him. Because of that faith, Jesus healed the man's son. With that healing, others came to believe. Those new believers in Jesus came about because of the official's faith. In The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis says that we are all to be missionary disciples. In other words, the joy of our faith should attract others to Christ. Could you be accused of bringing others to faith? Today's Readings: Isaiah 65:17-21; Psalm 30:2 and 4, 5-6, 11-12a and 13b (2a); John 4:43-54.

Tuesday, March 17, 2015 St. Patrick, Bishop

The many legends of St. Patrick are widely known. It cannot be confirmed, though, that this fifth-century saint either taught with a shamrock or drove out snakes. What can be known about his life is what he wrote in his old age in his Confession. There, he tells of his dependence on God in prayer and the faith that sustained him while in captivity. Though happy when he was able to return to his homeland, he followed God's call to evangelize in Ireland. Today's Readings: Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12; Psalm 46:2-3, 5-6, 8-9 (8); John 5:1–16.

Wednesday, March 18, 2015 St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and Doctor of the Church

St. Cyril's Catechetical Instructions are still studied today. In those sermons, the bishop explained Church doctrine to catechumens preparing for Baptism at the Easter Vigil and the mysteries of the sacraments to the neophytes during the period after the initiation sacraments were received. This fourth-century saint also was known for the mercy he showed. When a famine struck, he sold church goods so that the poor could eat. Today's Readings: Isaiah 49:8-15; Psalm 145:8-9, 13cd-14, 17-18 (8a); John 5:17-30.

Thursday, March 19, 2015 St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Marv

The few details about St. Joseph in the Gospel accounts provide a picture of a man of faith. Because of his faith, Joseph believed the angels who appeared to him, first telling him to take Mary as his wife and then to flee to Egypt with his family. Joseph was willing to follow God's lead, to go where God needed him to go. How willing are we to put our desires aside to follow God's path? Today's Readings: 2 Samuel 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16; Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27 and 29 (37); Romans 4:13, 16-18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18-21, 24a or Luke 2:41-51a.

Friday, March 20, 2015 Lenten Weekday

During this Lent, you might want to spend some time becoming more acquainted with the psalms. You may find that they speak to your needs, fears, joys, and sorrows. Today's Psalm 34 tells of how God tends to those who are faithful. He hears them when they cry out and rescues them from their troubles. Perhaps you would like to meditate on a psalm that speaks to how you are feeling this Lent. Today's Readings: Wisdom 2:1a, 12–22; Psalm 34:17–18, 19–20, 21 and 23 (19a); John 7:1-2, 10, 25-30.

Saturday, March 21, 2015

Lenten Weekday

In today's Gospel, we hear that some regarded Jesus as a prophet and others as the Messiah, while still others had contempt for him. It is tempting to consider this reading as a record of the past. But you can use this retreat time during Lent to ask yourself how you think Jesus is. Has the time that you have spent this Lent with the daily readings provided you with an intimacy with Christ? Are you willing to continue daily practices after Lent to nurture your relationship with Christ? Today's Readings: Jeremiah 11:18-20; Psalm 7:2-3, 9bc-10, 11-12 (2a); John 7:40-53.
