Stewardship Reflection
By David Baranowski

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

A few months ago, a young member of our parish, AJ Rosenberger, asked for your help in completing his Eagle Scout Project; renovation of the kitchen in our school gym, Szelest Hall. The response was tremendous and the outcome is spectacular. AJ and his team of fellow scout set to work and totally transformed this little kitchen. The photos show what can be accomplished by a determined group of hard working scouts.

I thank AJ for his commitment to our parish and for choosing to renovate the Szelest Hall kitchen as his Eagle Scout Project. And I thank AJ and his team for what they have accomplished. The Szelest Hall kitchen was in serious need of renovation and the finished project was so much more than I expected. This kitchen renovation is a perfect illustration of Christian stewardship; using time, talent and treasure to serve the parish community.

AJ's work would not have been possible without the support of so many parishioners who shared their treasure and made a donation to this project. AJ joins me in thanking everyone whose contributions made this renovation possible. All future users of the Szelest Hall kitchen will be grateful for AJ and all the scouts who accepted the challenge of renovating this kitchen and did such a spectacular job.

News from the Food Pantry

We hope everyone is enjoying the summer months! It's hard to believe that July is almost over! In August as everyone is enjoying their last bit of summer, students and parents will start to shop for back-to-school items. Last year the pantry started a back-to-school table filled with essential school supplies. They went quickly as we have many families that have school aged children. We hope you will help us this year as we prepare the table again. Please see the flyer below for the supplies needed.

Also, mark you calendars for our next drive through food donation on Saturday, September 10 from 10 am to 12 noon. A flyer with items needed will be forthcoming mid-August.

We thank you for your continued support of the St. Mary's Food Pantry
