Stewardship Reflection

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." MATTHEW 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good stewards recognize that God is working through them and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

In a discussion I was having with a good friend of mine who is a priest in the Episcopalian Church, he casually mention that one of the things he envied about the Catholic Church was the fact that we had cloistered community of both men and women. This comment totally surprised me. I thought what a strange thing to envy about the Catholic Church. When I asked him why, he said, "Don't you realize that at every minute of every day, somewhere in the world there is cloistered community of nuns or brothers praying for your Church?"

This past Friday, February 2nd, the Catholic Church celebrated the World Day for Consecrated Life in which we honor and give thanks for all the men and women who serve the Church in religious communities, those in cloistered life and those who serve in so many active ministries. In addition to those who live in community, our archdiocese is blessed to have individuals who are part of secular institutes, who are consecrated virgins and those who have taken private vows.

For more than 170 years, the Archdiocese of Newark has been blessed by the service of countless men and women in consecrated life, most especially in education and in health care as well as in parish ministry. They have touched so many lives with their compassion, their care, their ministry and most importantly, with their prayers.

In observance of the World Day for Consecrated Life, yesterday, our Archbishop, His Eminence Joseph Cardinal Tobin celebrated a special mass for those in consecrated life at St. Therese of Lisieux in Cresskill

Let us all give thanks for all the women and men in consecrated life who serve the Church and lets us all pray that the Church will be blessed with an abundance of vocations to consecrated life and ordained ministry.

Fr. Carey

ANNUAL²⁰²⁴APPEAL

The 2024 Annual Appeal has begun! You should have received an invitation in the mail from Cardinal Tobin to consider making a financial sacrifice to support this year's Annual Appeal. We are grateful for your generosity and we rely on it because it helps support essential ministries and programs of our Archdiocese, which are also centric to our faith. Your support to the Annual Appeal helps us accomplish across the Archdiocese what we would not be able to do alone.

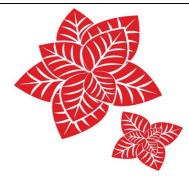

You can make your commitment here at Mass on February 3-4, which will be our In-Pew Weekend. You can also make a gift online by going to rcan.org/sharing.

Thank you for your time and consideration. You are in my prayers. Please pray for the success of the Annual Appeal.
