Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, the Coming of the Holy Spirit, the Birthday of the Church and the end of the Easter Season. Jesus promised us that He would send us the "Advocate" who will be with us until the end of the age. The Holy Spirit is with us, we are not left orphans, we are encouraged and enlightened through the power of the Holy Spirit. May we always feel the effects of the Spirit in our lives by praying to the Holy Spirit. Luis Martinez served as Archbishop of Mexico City. He wrote many spiritual books throughout his life but his most famous book is entitled "True Devotion to the Holy Spirit". In it Archbishop Martinez maps out how we are to cultivate devotion to the Holy Spirit in our spiritual lives and when we reference and pray to the Spirit we will see a transformation within ourselves. He writes: "What is devotion to the Holy Spirit but a loving and constant cooperation with His divine influence, with His sanctifying work? To be devoted to the Holy Spirit is to open our soul for Him to dwell there... To be devoted to the Holy Spirit is to possess Him and to let ourselves be loved and moved according to His good pleasure, to permit the divine Artist to destroy in us all that is opposed to His holy designs: all the bad, all the earthly, and all the humanly weak, and to let Him infuse into us a new life, the marvelous participation in the life of God... True devotion to the Holy Spirit is not something distinct from the Christian life, it is the Christian life thoroughly understood, seriously practiced and deeply enjoyed."

As we celebrate Pentecost let us foster within ourselves a true devotion to the Holy Spirit. May the Spirit transforms our lives in many wonderful ways.

Have a great week!

May God be Praised,
Fr. Dominic

Here are some of the good deeds that the children of St. Mary's did as a way of showing their love of God and of our parish. We hope that they will always know how important what they do for God and for us truly is. Even though they are still young, they can give us a wonderful example to follow.

"I used my gift cards to buy an I pad cover for a friend in the hospital."

"I gave my mom my gift certificates to buy Malaikas I pad cover."

"I helped St. Jude's by giving money to them."

“I helped someone.” “I said my prayers.”

Stewardship Prayer

Dear Lord,

O Divine Giver of all gifts, grant us the daily graces we need to follow closely in the footsteps of Jesus in the way we live out our lives and make use of our gifts.

Daily, may we renew with You our small part of the world by allowing Your will to be accomplished in and through us.

Help us to trust in Your love for us and to grow in our fidelity and relationship with You.

We thank You for the trust You place in us as stewards of our personal gifts. May the Holy Spirit guide us in placing our time, talent and treasure at the service of each other so that together we may faithfully witness the Christian message and thus become your holy people. Amen.

The Council is located at 61 Armour Place, just off Prospect Avenue in Dumont and we're open on Friday evenings from 8-11PM. Why not stop in and learn more about the good works of the Knights of Columbus!

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Spirit of Life

Almighty Father, shower upon us the sevenfold gifts of
 your love,
 that we may bask in your salvation
 and live lives full of service and joy.
 Filled with the gifts of the Spirit,
 may we go out from our communities,
 ready to share the fruits of the Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection with the whole world.
 May the Spirit who is our life and breath enliven us
 and may our unique gifts be shared with the entire Body of Christ.
 We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
 your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday, June 8, 2014
 Invite the Spirit

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1-11; Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34 (see 30); 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13; John 20:19-23. Today the eternal Paraclete comes down, freeing us from sin and sorrow. The Spirit of the Lord, who blows where he will, cleanses and heals the wounded earth, a healing balm poured out from the Cross. Today the Spirit also burns within us, flinging wide doors and windows, that we may embrace the universal call to holiness, as proclaimed by the Second Vatican Council.

Take time, on this holy day, and throughout the year, to invite the Spirit into your life. Pray for true wisdom, courage, compassion, consolation, healing, and peace that comes from the ruach (breath) of God. Try to become more sensitive to the workings of the Spirit around you.

Continue to pray for all neophytes, the newly baptized, and continue to accompany them on their faith journey. Invite them to participate in parish activities, such as Bible study, small faith sharing groups, and hospitality following the Sunday Eucharist. At the same time, pray for new seekers to be led to the RCIA process at your parish. Is there someone you know who might like to be invited to Mass? Consider whether you are called to participate in RCIA as a sponsor or in some other way.

May we continue to embrace the various charisms given to the Body of Christ for the common good. Whatever gifts, ministries, or works we find within our community, let them be true expressions of the Spirit, so that all may be continually enlivened through that same Spirit. "Come, Holy Spirit, enliven the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of your divine love!"
