Eucharistic Liturgy

Saturday Eve: 5:30 pm
 Sunday: 8:00 am, 10:00 am, 12:00 pm
 Holydays (except Saturday): 7:00 am, 8:45 am, & 7:30 pm
 Weekdays: Monday - Friday 8:00 am
 Saturday: 8:30 am
 Holiday: 9:00 am on Major Civil Holidays

Religious Devotions

Miraculous Medal Novena: Saturday following 8:30 am Mass.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

First Friday of the month, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm, in the lower church. From September thru May.

Sacrament of Penance

Saturday: 4:00 - 4:45 pm
 Private confessions at any time. Please call rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage

Common policy of the Archdiocese of Newark asks that arrangements be made one year in advance. Engaged couples must call to make an appointment to speak to a priest.

Sacrament of Baptism

Parents should register for the Baptism Preparation Program at the rectory...even before the baby is born!

Catechumenate

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which adults (and children who have reached the age of reason) are prepared to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. If you, or someone you know, would like to inquire about becoming a Catholic, please call the parish office.

Ministry to the Sick and Homebound

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is available to be celebrated with anyone in need. Please do not wait until death is imminent to contact the parish regarding an ill family member. Eucharistic Ministers and others serve our community by visiting and bringing Communion to the sick and homebound. Please call the parish office if you wish such a visit.

God's Plan for Giving - Tithing

Tithing is God's plan to support His Church. Full tithing means 10% of gross income to God. We ask half of this, or 5%, for your parish Church. The other 5% goes to your favorite charities.

Divine Mercy Novena

We invite you to join us as we start with the Divine Mercy Novena. Venue & meeting time are as follows:
April 5 - Respective homes.
April 6-11 - Easter Monday to Saturday, after the morning Mass Upper Church. On Sunday, April 12, we celebrate the Feast of Mercy, a culmination of the Divine Mercy Novena after the 12 noon Mass. This will be followed immediately by fellowship at the Spiritual Formation Center.
For questions, please contact: Jun & Marichi Adel 201 385 8529; or Tony Abad 201 244 5774.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of all the priests and staff of St. Mary's we would like to wish you a very blessed Easter. This is truly a time for us to rejoice as Catholic Christians, as Christ has conquered death and new life is given to each of us. Below is a meditation from a spiritual writer who reminds us that we are the modern day witnesses of the Resurrection. So let us go out and spread the Good News:

For us Easter people, to live is to love and to live is to give witness to this love. What we and the world desperately need are people who are willing to witness not to the past but to the present, because like Peter we can say that we ate and drank with the Lord after he rose from the dead. We do this every time we partake of the Eucharistic meal where it is the resurrected body of Christ that is made present. We need to be an Easter people who have experienced a resurrection in our own lives, a people who can assure the world that death does not have the last word, that we have died to our sinful selves and now live the resurrected life of Jesus. That is the message, the good news that the world and the suffering millions expect from us.

Others can only learn of the resurrection of Christ through us, by the way we live and love. The only face that Christ can show to others today to convince and to convert them is our own, that of our Christian communities. “Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them” (Mt 18:20). So the resurrected Christ promised to be with us when we come together in his name. We are the ones then who have to demonstrate the resurrection of Christ; we are the witnesses that Christ has risen and is alive in our midst. It is in this way, that we will come to understand what rising from the dead truly means.

Alleluia! Alleluia! He is risen!

Have a great week!

May God be Praised,
Fr. Dominic

Stewardship Prayer

Dear Lord,

O Divine Giver of all gifts, grant us the daily graces we need to follow closely in the footsteps of Jesus in the way we live out our lives and make use of our gifts.

Daily, may we renew with You our small part of the world by allowing Your will to be accomplished in and through us.

Help us to trust in Your love for us and to grow in our fidelity and relationship with You.

We thank You for the trust You place in us as stewards of our personal gifts. May the Holy Spirit guide us in placing our time, talent and treasure at the service of each other so that together we may faithfully witness the Christian message and thus become your holy people. Amen.

Anointing Mass

 An illustration in the top left corner shows a pair of hands pouring oil from a small jar onto a person's head. The text "Anointing of the Sick" is written in a curved path above the hands.

Our spring Anointing Mass will take place on Saturday, April 18, at the 5:30PM Mass in the upper church. We invite those who suffer difficulties from illness or age to come and to pray for God's healing in your lives. If you know of anyone who would like to come to this Anointing Mass but who cannot due to a lack of transportation, please call the parish office and we will arrange to have them brought that day.

We ask God to keep in his care all those who are serving overseas in our armed forces, especially in Afghanistan. They are listed below and we ask your prayers for them.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR THOSE GRIEVING THE DEATH OF A LOVED ONE

Our session dates:
(The third Thursday of every month)
April 16, May 21, and June 18

All meetings are held in the Parish Office from 7:00 – 8:15 PM.

If you are interested in joining us, please contact the Parish Office at 201-384-0557 or just walk in on any third Thursday.

EASTER Sunday was so divinely glorious precisely because Good Friday; and the greatest sorrow that can ever happen-sin-gave rise to the greatest good the world has ever seen or will perceive-the Saviour, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.

Please pray for her Canonization and visit our new painting of her located in the vestibule of our church.

Most Holy and Blessed Trinity, Whom Sister Miriam loved so ardently, grant that we, like her, may become ever more conscious of Your Divine Presence within our souls. We implore You to show signs that Your humble servant enjoys glory with You in Heaven, and to hasten the day when we may render her a public tribute of our veneration and love.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hackensack Walk-in Shelter - April 8th

Our next trip to Hackensack Walk-in Shelter will be April 8th. Due to new regulations, the shelter suggested to prepare only the following dishes:

Turkey, Meatloaf, Mashed Potatoes and any types of Vegetables.

Pans are available at the doors of the church this weekend, April 4/5. For more information, please call the Parish Office, 201-384-0557. We greatly appreciate your generosity.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 6, 2015

No Need to Fear

"Do not be afraid!" Jesus greets the women with these words in today's Gospel. The same words were said to Mary at the Annunciation and to the shepherds as the angels heralded the birth of the Lord. Today we know that the Lord is risen and with us. Still, we often are afraid of what is ahead of us. During this season, we may want to try to practice trusting in the Lord as we rejoice that he has risen and is always present in our lives. Today's Readings: Acts 2:14, 22–33; Psalm 16:1–2a and 5, 7–8, 9–10, 11 (1); Matthew 28:8–15.

Tuesday, April 7, 2015

Called by God

How easy it is to miss the Lord when our focus is on ourselves. At first Mary did not recognize the Lord because she was concentrating on the empty tomb and her grief. Yet it took only being called by name for her to see the Lord. The Lord calls each of us to him. Do we recognize the Lord's call in Word, in sacrament, and in members of the Body of Christ? Today's Readings: Acts 2:36–41; Psalm 33:4–5, 18–19, 20 and 22 (5b); John 20:11–18.

Wednesday, April 8, 2015

Telling the Good News

In today's Gospel, we hear that two disciples walked many miles with Jesus and then finally recognized him in the breaking of the bread. The early Christians used the term "breaking of the bread" for Eucharist. Having recognized Jesus, these disciples ran to spread the message. Does the Eucharist nourish you to tell others of the life that you live in Christ? Or are you afraid to proclaim Christ to others? Today's Readings: Acts 3:1–10; Psalm 105:1–2, 3–4, 6–7, 8–9 (3b); Luke 24:13–35.

Thursday, April 9, 2015

Peace Be with You

We hear in today's Gospel that Jesus' first words to the Apostles were those of peace. The Apostles were a troubled group. They had followed Jesus for three years, but could not make sense of his death. Wishing them peace, Jesus explains the Scriptures to them, showing them that his death fulfilled the prophecies. We should seek to rest in Jesus when we are troubled. Does it help to know that he wishes us peace? Today's Readings: Acts 3:11–26; Psalm 8:2ab and 5, 6–7, 8–9 (2ab); Luke 24:35–48.

Friday, April 10, 2015

An Overwhelming Love

An abundance of fish filled the net as soon as Jesus told the Apostles to cast their net to the side of the boat. Could the fish in today's narrative from John be likened to the overwhelming love that God has for us? In today's Gospel, Christ feeds the Apostles, sharing bread and fish with them. God continues to nourish and share himself through the Eucharist. Today's Readings: Acts 4:1–12; Psalm 118:1–2 and 4, 22–24, 25–27a (22); John 21:1–14.

Saturday, April 11, 2015

Saturday within the Octave of Easter

We hear in today's Gospel of the reluctance of the Apostles to believe that Jesus had risen. First, they disregarded the Good News from Mary Magdalene and from the disciples who met Jesus along the road. Appearing before the disciples, Jesus commands them to spread the Gospel. Have you taken that message to heart? Today's Readings: Acts 4:13–21; Psalm 118:1 and 14–15ab, 16–18, 19–21 (21a); Mark 16:9–15.
